

Special Session A

Investing in Renewable Energy

Born in 1958. Marcel Brenninkmeijer participated in executive study programmes at Harvard Business School and at the IMD in Lausanne, Switzerland.

He started his career with C&A, which allowed him to gain a broad international background in the business world, working in the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, France, Canada, Germany and Switzerland. In his most recent position with C&A, he was a board member responsible for store operations in Switzerland. He also set up the C&A European Environmental Working Group in 1989. In the following, Marcel Brenninkmeijer acted as an advisor to Anthos Consult, Amsterdam. In 2001, he founded Good Energies Inc., a private investment firm in solar photovoltaic companies and wind energy developers. Good Energies Inc. contributes as a strategic investor to the ongoing energy transition process with a particular focus on the support of initiatives in the field of clean energy technologies. Since Good Energies Inc.'s inception, Marcel Brenninkmeijer has acted as its Chairman.

Marcel Brenninkmeijer
(NL)
Chief Executive Officer
Good Energies Inc.
Zug