

Prof. Dr. Winfried Ruigrok (NL)
Director
Research Institute for International Management
University of St. Gallen
St. Gallen

Born in 1961. Winfried Ruigrok studied at the University of Amsterdam, where he earned a Master in international relations in 1986 and a Doctorate in international political economy in 1993.

Winfried Ruigrok served as a member of the faculty at Erasmus University Rotterdam, at the University of Amsterdam and at Warwick Business School in the United Kingdom. He furthermore worked for the Netherlands International Organisation for Development Co-operation and the European Commission in Belgium. Winfried Ruigrok is a full professor of International Management, managing director of the Research Institute for International Management, and the academic director of the Master of International Management programme at the University of St. Gallen. His research focuses on the role of foreigners in top management teams and boards, corporate governance and international restructuring.

Winfried Ruigrok is the author of over a hundred academic and practice-oriented publications. He is also a member of various editorial boards and has been a consultant to numerous firms and public organisations.

