

Dr. Wilfried Stadler (AT)
Chief Executive Officer and
Chairman of the Board
Investkredit Bank AG
Vienna

Born in 1951. Wilfried Stadler studied economics at the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration.

Between 1977 and 1983, he gained first entrepreneurial experience with the family-owned business. From 1983 to 1986, Wilfried Stadler served as expert for economic policy at the Österreichische Wirtschaftsbund. In 1987, he joined the Investkredit Group as an Account Manager and ascended the ranks as Head of Corporate Finance in 1992. From 1990 to 1995, Wilfried Stadler was Member of the Management Board of Kommunalkredit Austria AG. Subsequently, he became Member of the Management Board of Investkredit Bank AG and took over as its Chief Executive Officer and Chairman in 2002.

Additionally, Wilfried Stadler serves on the Supervisory Board of, among others, Kommunalkredit Austria AG, Invest Equity Beteiligungsfonds AG, Wien Strom GesmbH, and Trodat GesmbH.

Wilfried Stadler is author and publisher of several books including "Venture Capital und Private Equity", "Impulse für das Unternehmen Österreich" and "Auf dem Weg zu neuen Spielregeln: Beiträge zum Wandel von Wirtschaftsordnung und Finanzierungskultur". He wrote numerous essays and contributions to magazines, especially on topics related to business and technology policy, the finance sector, infrastructure policy as well as economic systems and business ethics issues.

Theses
Competitive
Economic Systems:
The Responsibility of Companies

- US-Europe: Conflict or convergence of financial cultures?
- Shareholder value and the shape of a new regulatory framework
- Competitiveness of economic systems
- The crisis of market fundamentalism: Which way out?

Theses
Competitive
Economic Systems:
The Responsibility of Companies

- Ecological and social framework conditions for the global market
- Agenda setting: The responsibility of companies for shaping the rules